

Horses, Carriages, &c.

ADVERTISEMENT
WITH
AMERICAN DISTRICT MESSENGER
Office in New York City

50 SADTLE HOPKES to let for the Columbia Trust Co. J. N. NAUGHTON & BROS., 31, wall street.

WHO WILL SUCCEED GILMORE?

Mrs. Gilmore Not Frantically Interested in the Famous Band.

What will become of Gilmore's band is still a matter of speculation. It is probable, however, that no decisive steps will be taken and the band finishes its engagement in St. Louis and returns to New York. Col. John T. Carr of the Twenty-second Regiment said yesterday that he thought the men would probably come back to this city and reorganize. The will see that it is for their own benefit to do so he added.

Mr. Gilmore left no will and no provision for the maintenance of the organization. Mr. Gilmore said last night that personally he would not be concerned in the management

[illegible]

Neither Contractor Connor nor his men had any intention of touching the property of the engineer, but, thinking that they were in his job and kept up a moderate supply of steam for emergencies. Contractor Connor says he will not make any attempt to cross the railroad company's property with the sewer line installation. He says that his arrangement has been made before the city and the railroad officials.

Some of the city and railroad companies and the city's lawyers attribute the presence of the locomotive to a mistake of some one of the men working on the sewer line. Mr. Edwards said it was doubtless a mistake, but it was not a close association with the railroad company and was nothing. Mr. Edwards and Mr. Thompson were not even asked to leave the scene, but on account of trying to prevent the sewer from crossing the property.

It is possible that if there was any mistake about it there has been ample time to correct it.

PLEASE COME FOR YOUR ROY.

Charley is at Police Headquarters Waiting for You, Madam.

There is a boy at Police Headquarters who was picked up in Central Park on Wednesday afternoon. Around his neck was a tag marked with the letters "H" to stand for "Hunch." After dressing him, gave him to a strange woman, who took him "to the woods," presumably Central Park. He calls himself Charley, and is from the town of Farm and Charley. He is a rather good-looking little chap, about 12 years old, with a head of hair that is unusually white and clean, and his garments are unsoiled and in good condition. He wore a velvet jacket and a blue plaid coat lined with Canton flannel.

Not Ready to Report.

The Chamber of Commerce held yesterday its first meeting after the summer recess. Vice President Alexander E. Orr reviewed the work of the Chamber undertaking to meet the danger of an invasion of cholera. The special committee, he said, was not ready to report at this time. Mr. Orr said that the

[illegible]

The Rev. Edwin Edgerton Allen, minister of the Congregational church, was married to Miss Helen Maud Eberhart, daughter of Mr. George Lockwood, in Zion and a Timothy's Protestant Episcopal Church in Fifty-seventh street, near Eighth avenue. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Henry C. Van Hook, rector of the church. The bridegroom was attended by Mr. Foster S. Bayard, a cousin of the bride. The bridesmaids were Miss Helen Allen, sister of the bride, Miss Harry L. Peake and Mr. Harold S. Bond. The officiating minister was the Rev. Dr. Charles H. Johnson, of Boston. Mr. Francis Strong and Mr. William H. Allen, the bridegroom's father and brother, were present. Miss Helen Lockwood, the eldest sister of the bride, was maid of honor.

The Rev. Mr. Allen, with his bride, left on the midnight train for Vancouver, from which they will sail for Hongkong and Shanghai. In Peiping, Mr. Allen has been missionary work in China.

He is—No better.

The Rev. Frederick Robinson, D.D., a retired Episcopal clergyman, who for twenty years past has resided at 1414 N. Masspech and eighteen years vicar of Columbia College, and Miss Emily Henrietta Nabbett were married yesterday morning in Grace Church, Jamaica. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. George H. Boughton of the Little Church around the Corner, this city. The bride was attired in a dress of white cashmere, and was given away by her brother, the Rev. J. B. Nabbett, of the Episcopal ministry. The groom was escorted by the pupil of Union High School, who attended in a body, accompanied by the principal, Miss Hunting, and the teachers.

Hillier-Stillwell.

Miss Amelia M. Stillwell, daughter of Frank D. Stillwell, and Arthur S. Hillier, of West Brighton, S. L., were married last evening at Trinity M. E. Church. The church was decorated with flowers and the altar was a bower of the golden blossoms. The ceremony was performed by the past the Rev. Dr. B. B. Handford.

DRINK

POLAND WATER.

This pure, sparkling, mineral water, is sold by

New York Depot, Tribune Building.